FABRICATORS, MANUFACTURERS AND SUPPLIERS

CWA is your forum for the advancement of the welding profession and industry in Canada.

CWA'S MISSION

To provide a Canadian forum in which welding professionals, their employers, fabricators, manufacturers, distributors, and educators are all able to exchange information, share knowledge resources and work with government and regulatory agencies as well as each other to advance the welding profession, its products and practices.

ABOUT THE ASSOCIATION

The CWA provides all of its members the opportunity to participate in the improvement of the profession and the industry, in the areas of:

- Productivity
- Influence of legislation and regulation
- Development of education standards and programs
- Development of trained professionals
- Networking
- Industry image
- Representation at national and international conferences, symposiums and trade shows

Through CWA membership, all members can connect with their peers, influence the manner in which they communicate and work, educate themselves and their employees, as well as improve productivity, profitability, safety and environmental responsibility in their operations.

Members can participate in the development of programs that they feel are important to the industry. Members gain a broad view of the welding industry and the issues and challenges affecting manufacturers through their communications with fellow members, by participating on CWA committees and via CWA's alliances with the Canadian Welding Bureau and other Canadian welding associations.

BENEFITS OF MEMBERSHIP

- Networking opportunities with fellow manufacturers and welding-product manufacturers
- Opportunities to approach government and regulators on an industry-wide basis
- Participation in the planning of your industry's future trade shows
- Access to technical information
- Opportunities to influence welding education as well as the training and skills of current and future welders
- Access to CWB Learning Centre educational modules at discounted rates
- Discounted advertising rates in our Canadian Welding Association Journal
