Help us help you

For over 60 years the CWB Group has been committed to supporting the growth of the Canadian welding industry. Through the recent acquisition of the Canadian Welding Association (CWA), we have expanded our services to help further develop and grow the ranks of qualified Canadian welders. The CWA's mandate is to provide a forum in which welding and joining professionals are able share information and work with government and regulatory agencies to advance the welding and joining profession and its associated practices and policies. In short – the CWA is here to help you and your employees.

It's time to participate

As a customer of the CWB Group we know that you understand the value and importance of standards, and the resulting improvement in quality and productivity they drive. By becoming a member of the CWA you are helping us to extend these values to your shop floor – helping your welders, supervisors, inspectors and engineers be the best, and deliver the best.

Simply put - The CWA is your voice, and your opportunity to contribute to the industry.
